Pope Francis' February Intentions

For religious sisters and consecrated women

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

Reflection

How have women supported you in your faith development?

How can we support religious sisters and consecrated women in their vocation of service?

Let us reflect upon the impact our mothers, our grandmothers and our female teachers had in passing on the faith to us.

Laudato Si

Establishing a Laudato Si monthly study guide on each chapter of Laudato Si to familiarize ourselves with the Encyclical.

to indicate your intention.

Care for Environment

The United Nations General Assembly has declared 2022 the International Year of Artisanal Fisheries and Aquaculture.

The Bureau is looking for personal testimonies from those fishing dependent people who struggle to survive due to our lack of care of the environment.

Can you Help?

We welcome testimonies from your members who fish for their livelihood and are experiencing hardship due to plastics, pollution, or another hazard.

We also encourage everyone to become more active through enrolling in the Laudato Si Action Platform.

Ukraine

The Bureau noted the call by Pope Francis for prayers for peace in Ukraine and exhort everyone to pray for your brothers and sisters in Ukraine particularly for our good friends in St. Volodymyr Foundation. In their report to the General Assembly, they highlighted the impact of the war on their country, however the situation has deteriorated significantly since then. The Bureau calls on everyone to pray for peace in this area and especially for our brothers in St. Volodymyr Foundation.
